

TRINA NALLY

Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer,
The Lubrizol Corporation

Trina Nally is Senior Vice President, Chief Human Resources Officer of The Lubrizol Corporation, a Berkshire Hathaway Company. In this role, she enables Lubrizol's long-term success and maximizes our employees' potential through the delivery of professional development opportunities and well-being programs, competitive compensation, and employee benefits and resources that empower our engaged and inclusive culture.

With 30 years of human resources experience, Trina has a track record of aligning company strategy, structure, culture, capabilities, and rewards to build high-performing organizations.

Most recently she served as Senior Vice President, People & Culture, for bp's Customers & Products business, the company's largest customer-facing business unit. In that role, she led and executed people transformation workstreams globally to align and deliver bp's new strategy and operating model. She developed and executed inclusion initiatives resulting in improvement of diverse representation at all levels and drove improved post transformation engagement scores across the workforce. In addition, she led and executed talent and succession planning from executive succession to first-level leaders.

Trina has held several leadership positions with BP, including Global VP, Human Resources for Castrol, Head of Talent & Learning – Downstream, and VP, Human Resources for Fuels North America.

Trina earned a Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration from the University of Nevada, Reno, and is a member of the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM).
